It's a necessity.
Not a luxury.

It's time to take women's menstrual care needs seriously. Period.

We have always believed it.

According to Cosmopolitan magazine, 2015 became “the year the period went public.” And HOSPECO® was part of the conversation — and the solution.

From its inception in 1919, HOSPECO pioneered the category of personal care products in public restrooms for women — and emerged as the longtime leader in vended menstrual care products. In 2015, HOSPECO became a sponsor in a pilot program with a New York City Council member and the New York City Department of Education that implemented the first dispenser of free menstrual care at public high schools. This initiative led to the passage of a law in NYC requiring free menstrual care in all public high schools, women's shelters and women's prisons.

Do the right thing.

Women should find readily accessible tampons and pads in every restroom outside the home.

Can you imagine any public restroom without toilet paper, toilet seat covers, paper towels, or soap? Then why don't all women's public restrooms also provide the menstrual care products women need for their periods —and make sure dispensers are always full? Now you can.

Available supplies and sanitary disposal mean security.

When you provide a reliable, attractive and easy to use dispenser stocked with tampons and pads — and a clean and easy way to dispose of menstrual care products — your employees, customers, and patrons will know you care about their needs and well-being — and women won't be worried when their period starts unexpectedly.

Did you know?

According to a 2013 national study of U.S. women ages 18 to 54, commissioned by Free the Tampons Foundation:

86% of women report that they've started their periods unexpectedly in public without the supplies they needed.

79% of women who unexpectedly started their periods in public without supplies, improvised with toilet paper, paper towels, or another makeshift fix.

48% obtained their supplies from a tampon/pad dispenser in a public restroom.

But ...ONLY 8% say that, in their experience, tampon and sanitary napkin dispensers in public restrooms work all the time.

Scensibles® System for Hygienic Disposal

Maintain clean and healthy restroom standards. Use personal disposal bags, refillable personal disposal bag dispensers, stall waste receptacles and poly receptacle liner bags for safe and sanitary disposal of menstrual care products.

Scented personal disposal bags mask odors and the easy tie-handle closure completely conceals contents. They minimize the risk of exposure to possible blood-borne pathogens and encourage proper disposal, reducing plumbing issues. Specially designed scented poly receptacle liners ensure safe handling for maintenance staff.
