

California AB 1810

Bridging the Gap for Menstruating Inmates

1. AB 1810 is a revised legislation that mandates incarcerated individuals who menstruate to be provided with, granted access to, or permitted to use menstrual products upon their request.
2. Qualifications: A person incarcerated in a state prison, local detention facility, state or local juvenile facility, and a Division of Juvenile Justice facility who menstruates.
3. Timeline: This act takes effect on the 30th day following enactment.

CALIFORNIA REPUBLIC

https://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/billNavClient.xhtml?bill_id=202320240AB1810