

University of Washington Food Pantry

The UW Food Pantry provides food and other necessities to students, staff, and faculty who are having a hard time putting food on their plate. It could be the result of a short-term disruption in finances, a food desert in the local community, or a lack of access to other financial assistance.

If you are making a choice between the food you need for a healthy life and other pressing priorities we call this experience food insecurity. The UW Food Pantry is there to relieve some of the stress of that experience.

Period Partner donated over 18,000 period products to support their important work.
